Spring on the Yorkshire Coast

Your guide to enjoying East Yorkshire's wildlife and wild places this season

Bill Richards

WILD day

Wings, waves and walks!

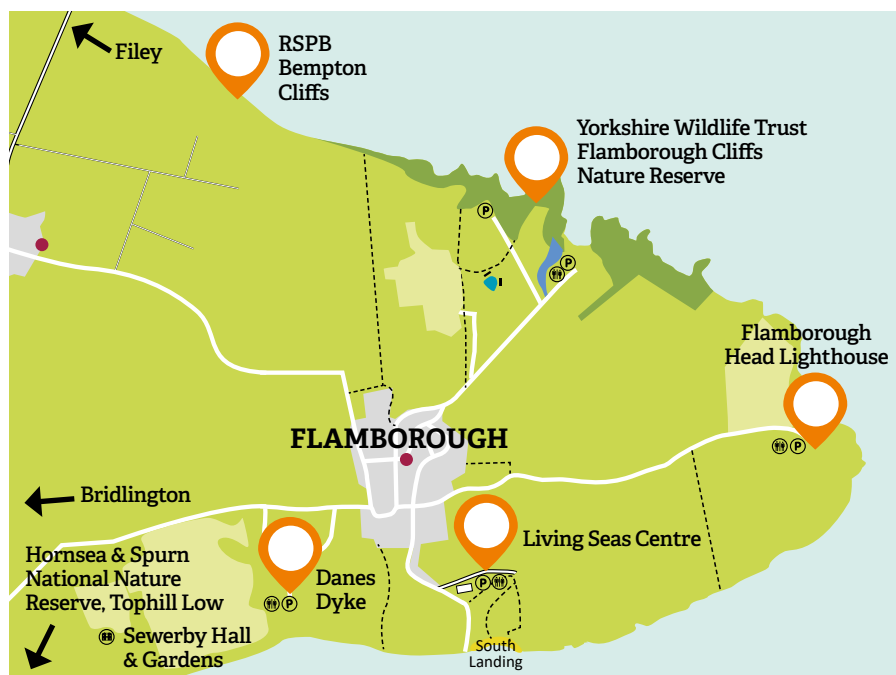

Only a day to spend on the coast? Make the most of it with these 'must-see' places as Flamborough welcomes the heralds of spring!

Where to go...

Yorkshire Wildlife Trust Flamborough Cliffs

Get ready for the sights, sounds and smell of thousands of seabirds returning to the cliffs. Puffins from May. YO15 1BJ

What to do...

Family activities

Discover more about life under the waves at Yorkshire Wildlife Trust's Living Seas Centre. YO15 1AE

Headland walks

Woodland meets the sea at South Landing beach and Danes Dyke Nature Reserve. Spring flowers carpet the ground and birds tune up around you.

A fish supper

Enjoy fish and chips straight out of the paper with a side order of fresh sea air!

WILD weekend

Sea air adventure!

Extend your trip, make a weekend of it and include the following over the course of two days while enjoying lots of sea air:

Join local experts!

Yorkshire Coast Nature run memorable day trips along the coast - wildlife gets more active in the Spring! yorkshirecoastnature.co.uk

RSPB Bempton Cliffs:

From May, the towering cliffs transform into a seabird city! Gannets and kittiwakes return, followed by puffins and guillemots. YO15 1JF

Go fossil hunting

Comb the beaches at Bridlington or Fraisthorpe, get your eye in and spot fossils of ancient, long extinct marine life.

Make the most of the coast!

Spring is an amazing time to watch wildlife along Yorkshire's coast so take your time and discover more!

A short drive away...

Filey views

See stunning coastline views from the top of Filey Brigg. Look out for the first swallow as well as seals and harbour porpoise on a calm day. YO14 9EJ

Walk the Coast

Step on to the England Coast Path from the Yorkshire Wolds Way National Trail for more postcard perfect views. nationaltrail.co.uk

Sewerby Hall

Enjoy 50 acres of pretty gardens and woodland walks at this 19th century house north of Bridlington. YO15 1EA £

Day trip adventures...

Point to point
